Charlotte Performing Arts Center announces its Featured Family Event: A Christmas Carol

A Christmas Carol comes to the Charlotte Performing Arts Center stage on Saturday, December 12 at 10:30 am and 1:30 pm. In a professional touring performance for young audiences, A Christmas Carol captures both the humorous and touching moments of the classic story with witty dialog and fresh new songs, conveying Dickens' original message that the holiday season should be a "kind, forgiving, charitable time", a sentiment which still rings true today.

The performance, which is approximately 60 minutes long, is great for families with young children. The affordable price of $5 per person is a great value to experience live theatre, compared to the cost of most movie theatres and other live venues. "Our goal was to make the performance accessible and affordable to all families, which we feel the $5 per ticket price has done," says Hollie Auten, Box Office Manager at the Charlotte Performing Arts Center. "We are excited to bring a high-quality production such as A Christmas Carol to our facility, and plan to do more in future years."

The performance is a generously sponsored by Lansing State Journal and Charlotte Shopping Guide.

Tickets are available through the CPAC box office by calling (517) 541-5690 or online at www.CPACpresents.com. Box office hours are 10:00 – 1:00, Monday – Friday. Tickets are $5.00 each. Children under 3 are free on parent's lap. Tickets will also be available at the door on the day of the performance.
