

Charlotte Performing Arts Center

~ PRESS RELEASE ~

January 7, 2010

Good seats available for Big Bad Voodoo Daddy performance at the Charlotte Performing Arts Center December 13

Big Bad Voodoo Daddy, often dubbed "America's favorite little big band", returns to the CPAC stage with a tribute to Cab Calloway that captures the essence of an American icon in a rowdy celebration of musicianship, mischief, genius, street smarts, and fun. Renowned for their high-spirited, impeccable performances, BBVD continues to expand their repertoire of outstanding swing music. The performance begins at 7:00 p.m. on Sunday, December 13.

Since their arrival on the music scene in 1993, Big Bad Voodoo Daddy's irresistible live show and aggressive, musically perceptive approach has proven them over time to be the singular standout among the numerous bands that launched the Nineties swing revival. The seven-man group forged a massively successful fusion of classic American sounds from jazz, swing, Dixieland and big-band music, building their own songbook of original dance tunes, and sixteen years later, BBVD is a veteran force that to this day adds new fans by the roomful every time they play.

The performance is a generously sponsored by Independent Bank and WILX TV-10, and co-sponsored by Lexington Lansing Hotel and The County Journal.

Tickets are available through the CPAC box office by calling (517) 541-5690 or online at www.CPACpresents.com. Box office hours are 10:00 – 1:00, Monday – Friday. Tickets are $35.00 each. A special Dinner and Show package is also available for this event. A Prime Rib dinner served at the Eaton Area Senior Center will precede the concert. Tickets for the Dinner/Show Package are only $42 per person and can be purchased at the Charlotte Performing Arts Center Box Office. Dinner/Show Package tickets must be purchased in advance, and will not be available at the door on the evening of the performance.
