~ PRESS RELEASE ~

April 18, 2011

Make it a hot night of music & laughs with Hormonal Imbalance at the Charlotte Performing Arts Center

Start with four richly gifted singer-songwriters, add 3/4 cup married life, four kids, four part harmony vocals, one piano, four guitars, one Rockin' Purple Bass, a dollop of sharp social commentary, cheerleading pom poms, a pinch of pms, a wardrobe of bling-bling, and you've got an Estrogen fueled hilarious new show that celebrates the best of Babes, Boys, and Botox. The hysterical ladies that make up Hormonal Imbalance will take the stage at the Charlotte Performing Arts Center on Sunday, May 8 at 7:00 pm.

With sorority sister chemistry, the ladies of Hormonal Imbalance perform original songs and stories offering both poignant views and unbridled comedic commentary on the joys and dilemmas of everyday life. With heavenly harmony, they share struggles to balance careers and family, chocolate obsessions with low-carb inner peace, CNN, and TV Land. From promising to never pay retail and finding a man who cooks, to dealing with inadequate pay and inadequately cut swim wear, all the while living victoriously after the Romantic Bubble Bursts.

Spend an entertaining evening with these outrageously funny and multi-talented musician gal pals as they examine and ultimately celebrate the lives of today's men and women as we all search for balance.

Tickets for this outstanding evening of music and comedy are only $27, and great seats are still available through the Charlotte Performing Arts Center box office by calling 517-541-5690 or you can order online at www.CPACpresents.com. Make it a special evening by enjoying a delicious surf & turf dinner served at the Eaton Area Senior Center for a remarkable dinner & show package price of just $39.

This performance is generously sponsored by Spartan Motors, WILX-TV10, and Auto-Owners Insurance, and co-sponsored by Lexington Lansing Hotel.
